The College Commits to Maintaining Quality of Training Amid FY 2024/2025 Budget Rationalization

The College Budget Committee during a meeting at the headquarters on 8 July, 2024.

Nairobi, Kenya – In a decisive move to ensure the continued excellence of training across all Kenya Medical Training College (KMTCC) campuses, CEO Dr. Kelly Oluoch has reiterated the institution's commitment to quality training in spite of the rationalization of the FY 2024/2025 recurrent budget.

Dr. Oluoch highlighted the College's ongoing initiatives to enhance service delivery, including the recruitment of new staff and digitalization. He encouraged all Principals to adopt measures to mitigate the effects of budget cuts, such as harmonized teaching initiatives.

In line with the Public Finance Management Act, the College will spend up to 15% of the rationalized budget until the Finance Bill is assented into law. Dr. Oluoch reassured staff that no payroll items, including salaries, house allowances, and commuter allowances, will be affected.

The CEO's commitment to sustaining the quality of training underscores KMTCC's dedication to its mission of producing fit-for-purpose health professionals, even in the face of financial challenges.

CEO Visits Exam Centres to Assess Preparedness for Final Qualifying Examinations

CEO Dr. Kelly Oluoch, accompanied by Deputy Director of Academics Dr. Nyawira Mwangi and Registrar Mr. Ronald Wasike, visited Nairobi Campus to assess the preparedness for the Final Qualifying Examinations. During their visit, they joined the students to offer motivation and encouragement.

A total of 13,722 students are currently sitting for their exams, reflecting the culmination of their rigorous academic training. Dr. Oluoch emphasized the importance of these examinations in ensuring the students are well-equipped to become competent health professionals ready to serve both locally and globally.

The visit underscores KMTCC's commitment to supporting its students and maintaining high standards of education and examination integrity.

Staff Retirement Benefit Schemes Hold AGM

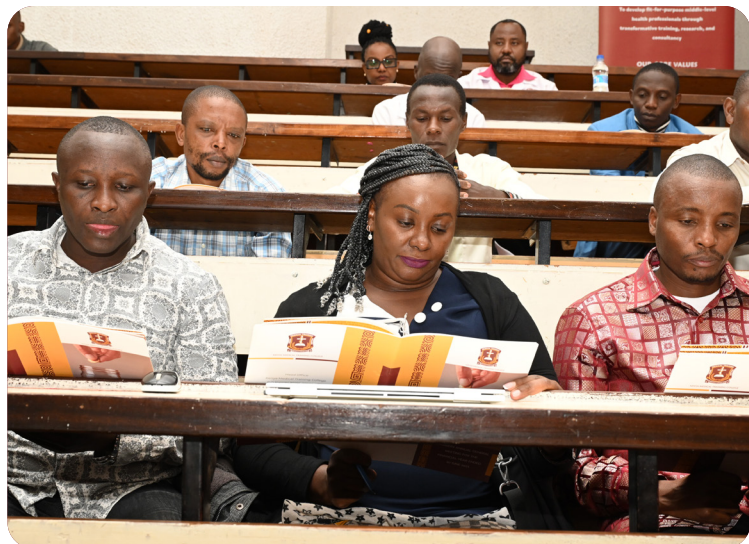

On July 11, 2024, Machakos Campus hosted the AGM for the KMTCC Staff Retirement Benefits Scheme (DBS) and Staff Pension Scheme 2011 (DCS) for the financial year ending June 30, 2023. The meeting featured both in-person and virtual attendance, highlighting the importance of inclusivity.

Key attendees included KMTCC Chairperson Mr. Joseph K. Cheruiyot, CEO Dr. Kelly Oluoch, Board of Trustees Chairperson Mr. Robert Ndalo, and various scheme members. The event emphasized the importance of involving younger staff in the retirement schemes and maintaining good governance.

CEO Dr. Kelly Oluoch reviewed the past year's activities, highlighting significant achievements and future plans to enhance the financial health of the schemes. A total of KES 459 million was contributed to the scheme during the period, with KES 306 million from the Sponsor. Attendees pledged to work together to propel the schemes to new heights, ensuring ongoing support and benefits for all members. The AGM underscored KMTCC's commitment to the welfare of its staff through prudent management and strategic planning.

KMTC CEO Emphasizes the Importance of Training Induction to Enhance Quality Training

A team of cohort 3 of newly recruited staff members during an induction training session in Mombasa

After successfully recruiting over 400 new employees across various departments, the College is now organizing the third phase of its induction training program for the newly appointed staff. This training follows the first two sessions held in Mombasa from November 13-17, 2024 and in Kisumu from June 3-14, 2024. The upcoming training is scheduled to take place in Mombasa from July 15 to 26, 2024.

The first team of inductees will undergo training from July 15 to 19, while the second cohort is scheduled for July 22 to 26, 2024. This comprehensive induction program is a crucial step in ensuring that the new staff are well-prepared to contribute to KMTC's mandate of providing high-quality healthcare training, conducting research and consultancy.

KMTC CEO, Dr. Kelly Oluoch, highlighted the significance of this induction in enhancing the quality of training provided at KMTC as the initial step for the College to continue to deliver top-tier healthcare education and meet the growing needs of KMTC students and the healthcare sector.

This extensive recruitment initiative follows a thorough review of the KMTC establishment aimed at addressing staff shortages and creating new positions to support the College's expansion and improvement efforts.

The induction training not only serves as an orientation for the new employees but also reinforces KMTC's commitment to maintaining a high standard of education and training across its campuses.

The Kenya Medical Training College (KMTC) Nyandarua Campus hosted a Resource Mobilization-cum-Cultural Day to explore potential partnerships and cooperation with the County Government of Nyandarua. The event garnered significant attention, bringing together the campus community and 28 members of the County Assembly. KMTC's CEO, Dr. Kelly Oluoch, represented by the Registrar, Mr. Ronald Wasike, urged the County Government to expedite the title deed process for the Nyandarua Campus and to consider KMTC graduates for job opportunities. He also advocated for the secondment of part-time lecturers and emphasized the importance of bursary allocations for students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Dr. Oluoch highlighted KMTC's vision and mission of producing competent health professionals who are fit-for-purpose and can work globally. "KMTC is renowned for producing competent health professionals. I urge applicants to take responsibility and apply for any course because KMTC trains fit-for-purpose professionals who can work anywhere globally," said Dr. Oluoch. Speaking during the celebrations, the Chief Guest, Senator John Methu, expressed pride in Nyandarua County hosting two KMTC campuses - Kinangop and Nyandarua. He highlighted the economic benefits these campuses have brought to local residents, including job opportunities and economic development.

Senator Methu outlined a comprehensive series of commitments from the County Government aimed at supporting KMTC. These commitments include infrastructural support, providing financial aid for students, and improving campus facilities as well as connectivity. Additionally, plans were discussed for upgrading JM Kariuki County Referral Hospital to a Level 6 facility to accommodate more KMTC students and increase the chances of graduates being absorbed into the workforce upon completion of their studies. The event saw the participation of key figures; KMTC's Head of Intergovernmental Relations, Dr. Leah Bii, Principals: Mrs. Winfred Nguih (Nyandarua), Mr. Peter Guchu (Kinangop), the Governor's representative, County Executive Committee Member for Roads and Infrastructure Mr. Peter Ng'ang'a, Members of the County Assembly, staff, and students.

The celebration underscored KMTC's commitment to maintaining its vision and mission of providing top-tier health training of middle-level health professionals. The event fostered a sense of community and collaboration between KMTC and the County Government, highlighting the institution's role in driving socioeconomic development and improving healthcare services in Nyandarua County and the country at large.

The Kenya Medical Training College (KMTC) Homa Bay campus signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Aga Khan Hospital in Kisumu to enhance academic collaboration and improve healthcare training programs.

The partnership emerged following the recent expansion of Aga Khan Hospital, which transformed from a 70-bed facility into a 123-bed capacity hospital. This growth has enabled the hospital to offer care in over 30 clinical specialties and subspecialties, ranging from cardiology to neonatology, and host the region's first Sleep Lab for diagnosing and treating sleep disorders.

The MoU aims to enhance KMTC Homa Bay's academic programs through clinical attachment opportunities in disciplines such as Physiotherapy, Nursing, Nutrition, and Dietetics, as well as other emerging fields. The agreement also includes discussions on joint research projects and curriculum development, focusing on new and evolving fields in health professional training.

Representing Aga Khan Hospital Kisumu at the signing was Chief Executive Officer Ms. Mary Oduor who noted that the collaboration is expected to significantly benefit students by providing hands-on experience and exposure to advanced medical practices, ultimately improving the quality of healthcare training at KMTC Homa Bay.

This strategic partnership underscores KMTC's commitment to providing top-tier health training and education, aligning with its Vision to be "A globally competitive institution for training human resources for health".

KMTC Kilifi Visits Ngala Mixed Secondary School for Program Sensitization

In an inspiring move to educate future healthcare professionals, the Kenya Medical Training College (KMTC) Kilifi Campus organized a sensitization session at Ngala Secondary Mixed School in Kilifi County on July 9, 2024. This initiative aimed to provide essential information about KMTC's educational opportunities to the school's 315 form four students.

The comprehensive session covered several key areas, ensuring that students received a thorough understanding of what KMTC has to offer. The KMTC team presented an overview of the various programs available, detailing the specific requirements for each. They also provided crucial information on the intake periods throughout the year, allowing students to plan their applications effectively. Additionally, the team highlighted the numerous KMTC campuses located across the country, showcasing the institution's extensive reach and accessibility.

To further assist the students in making informed decisions about their educational future, the KMTC team disseminated information packs to the students. These packs contained detailed descriptions of the programs, entry requirements, and other pertinent information, making it easier for students to understand their options and the steps they need to take to pursue a career in healthcare.

The visit was met with enthusiasm and curiosity from the students, who showed a keen interest in the possibilities that KMTTC offers. The session not only provided valuable information but also inspired many students to consider healthcare education and training as a viable and exciting career path.

Overall, the sensitization session at Ngala Secondary Mixed School was a resounding success, reflecting KMTTC Kilifi Campus's commitment to fostering the next generation of healthcare professionals.

Manza Campus Hosts Mentorship Program and Tree Planting Initiative

On Friday, July 5th, KMTTC Manza Campus hosted a mentorship program in collaboration with the Kenya Pharmaceutical Association (Eastern Kenya branch). The initiative aimed to equip outgoing pharmacy students with essential skills and insights to thrive beyond academic boundaries. Faculty members recognized the importance of mentorship in shaping students' careers and lives, making this partnership a significant step forward.

The mentorship sessions covered various activities crucial for success in the corporate world. Students actively engaged with trainers, gaining valuable information on career choices, opportunities, personal development, and maintaining a healthy work-life balance. The highlight of the day was the formal signing of an agreement between KMTTC Manza and the Kenya Pharmaceutical Association, cementing a comprehensive mentorship plan for the upcoming semester.

This collaboration underscores the College's commitment to nurturing the next generation of medical professionals, setting the stage for a transformative journey fuelled by knowledge, mentorship, and endless possibilities.

Campuses Elects New SRC Leaders for 2024/2025 Academic Year: A Commitment to Student Governance and Leadership

Tallying of votes at Nairobi Campus during the Students Representatives Council (SRC) Elections 2024/2025.

The College recently completed its Students' Representative Council (SRC) elections across all campuses for the Academic Year 2024/2025, marking a significant step towards fostering student leadership and representation within the institution. The electoral process, conducted from March to May, began with the declaration of vacant positions, followed by a thorough vetting of candidates and vigorous campaign activities lasting one to two weeks.

Throughout the electoral process, campus election committees diligently maintained integrity and fairness, addressing any issues or petitions that arose with transparency and accountability.

The SRC, recognized as a pivotal leadership organ within KMTTC, consists of an executive team and commissioners elected annually by their peers. The executive team includes key positions such as the Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Secretary General, Organizing Secretary, and Treasurer, each entrusted with specific responsibilities aimed at enhancing the overall student College experience.

In addition to the executive team, Commissioners are appointed to the SRC to support operational effectiveness across various domains including Academics, Sports, Security, Hospitality, Public Relations, Entertainment, and representation of Persons with Disabilities. This diverse representation ensures that the SRC addresses a wide range of student needs and concerns, promoting a vibrant and inclusive campus environment.

The SRC elections at KMTTC are conducted annually in strict adherence to established guidelines, overseen by the Campus Principals. This structured approach ensures a transparent and fair electoral process that upholds the principles of student governance and representation within the institution.

CEO Dr. Kelly Oluoch underscored the importance of student leadership in enhancing students' learning experience, shaping campus policies, fostering a conducive learning environment, and promoting student welfare initiatives. Dr. Oluoch expressed confidence in the newly elected leaders and urged them to uphold the highest standards of leadership, integrity, and service to their fellow students.

The successful conclusion of the SRC elections reaffirms KMTTC's commitment to nurturing future healthcare professionals who are not only academically proficient but also socially responsible and capable leaders in their communities.

Zonal Sports Kicks off, Gears Up For National Competitions

In a vibrant showcase of athleticism and teamwork, Kenya Medical Training College (KMTC) recently hosted its annual zonal sports event, uniting campuses in a celebration of sportsmanship and healthy competition among students.

KMTC places significant value on student sporting activities, recognizing their role in promoting physical and mental wellness, fostering social networks, enhancing national cohesion, and nurturing talent development. The zonal sports event, held from April 21 to 26, 2024, spanned across eight different zones as designated by KMTC sports divisions.

The event featured a diverse range of sporting disciplines including ball games, athletics, indoor sports, and racket games, engaging a total of 8,700 students from various KMTC campuses. Participants demonstrated exceptional skill and determination, competing fiercely yet with mutual respect and camaraderie.

Highlighting the competitive spirit, winners from the zonal competitions will advance to the prestigious national sports competition scheduled to take place in Kisumu City from July 29 to August 2, 2024. A total of 2,368 students are set to represent KMTC at the national level, showcasing their prowess in various sports disciplines.

The sports event not only serves as a platform for sporting excellence but also reinforces KMTC's commitment to holistic student development through physical activity and healthy competition. As students prepare for the national stage, KMTC remains dedicated to nurturing a culture of sportsmanship and excellence among its student body.

The upcoming national sports competition promises to be a thrilling display of talent and determination, where KMTC athletes will strive to achieve their best and uphold the college's tradition of sporting achievement.
